

CHRISTMAS SENTENCE GRAMMAR

18 engaging worksheets

Parts of Speech

Subject-predicate agreement

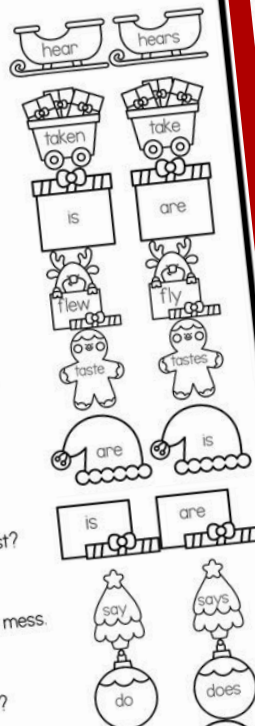

Simple, Compound & Complex

Complete sentences vs. fragments

Sleigh Bell Subjects & Verbs

Choose the correct verb form by coloring in the shape with the verb that matches the subject.

1. I can _____ the sleigh bells ringing.
2. Have you _____ a ride on a Christmas train?
3. The elves _____ dancing because their work is done!
4. Rudolph took a leap and _____ across the sky.
5. Nothing _____ better than a Christmas cookie.
6. Christmas caroling _____ my favorite holiday activity.
7. _____ you on the nice list or the naughty list?
8. I love tinsel but my mom _____ it makes a mess.

Compound Sentences

Choose the correct coordinating conjunction to combine the two sentences on the lines. Use the first as an example!

- but so I burned them.
- so and I glued a bunch of bells to my sweater!
- or Do you think they're annoying?
- nor I made one for Grandpa, too.
- so I can run out and see the tree.

PRACTICE GRAMMAR SKILLS THIS DECEMBER!

THESE WORKSHEETS ARE GREAT FOR...

✓ Morning/Warm-ups/Bellringer

✓ Grammar Practice

✓ Tutoring or Small Group

✓ Grammar Spiral Review

✓ ELA Test Prep Review

Elf Editing Sentences Name: _____

Read each sentence. Identify any errors in the sentence. Mark out the error and write the correction using a colored pencil.

Types of Errors
spelling	punctuation	subject-verb agreement
capitalization	missing words

Lennie the elf lookd at his

A cartoon illustration of an elf wearing a hat and holding a gift.

Christmas Clauses Name: _____

Cut out the clauses. Decide whether they are independent (a complete sentence) or dependent (not a complete sentence). Glue them into the correct column.

Independent	Dependent

A cartoon illustration of Santa Claus holding a gift.

THIS RESOURCE INCLUDES...

No prep

Skill focused

Holiday fun

Answer keys

Cut & paste activities

Coloring sheets

Sorting activity
worksheets

Editing

Answer Keys

Penguin Parts of Speech

Use the key below to color in the penguins according to part of speech.

Parts of Speech Color Key

noun: red adjective: purple preposition: blue verb: green adverb: orange

North Pole Nouns

Cut out the nouns on the bottom of the page. Sort them by the plural rule.

Add "s"

Add "es"

Change the "y" to "i" and add "es"

change nothing (plural is the same)

class

ornament

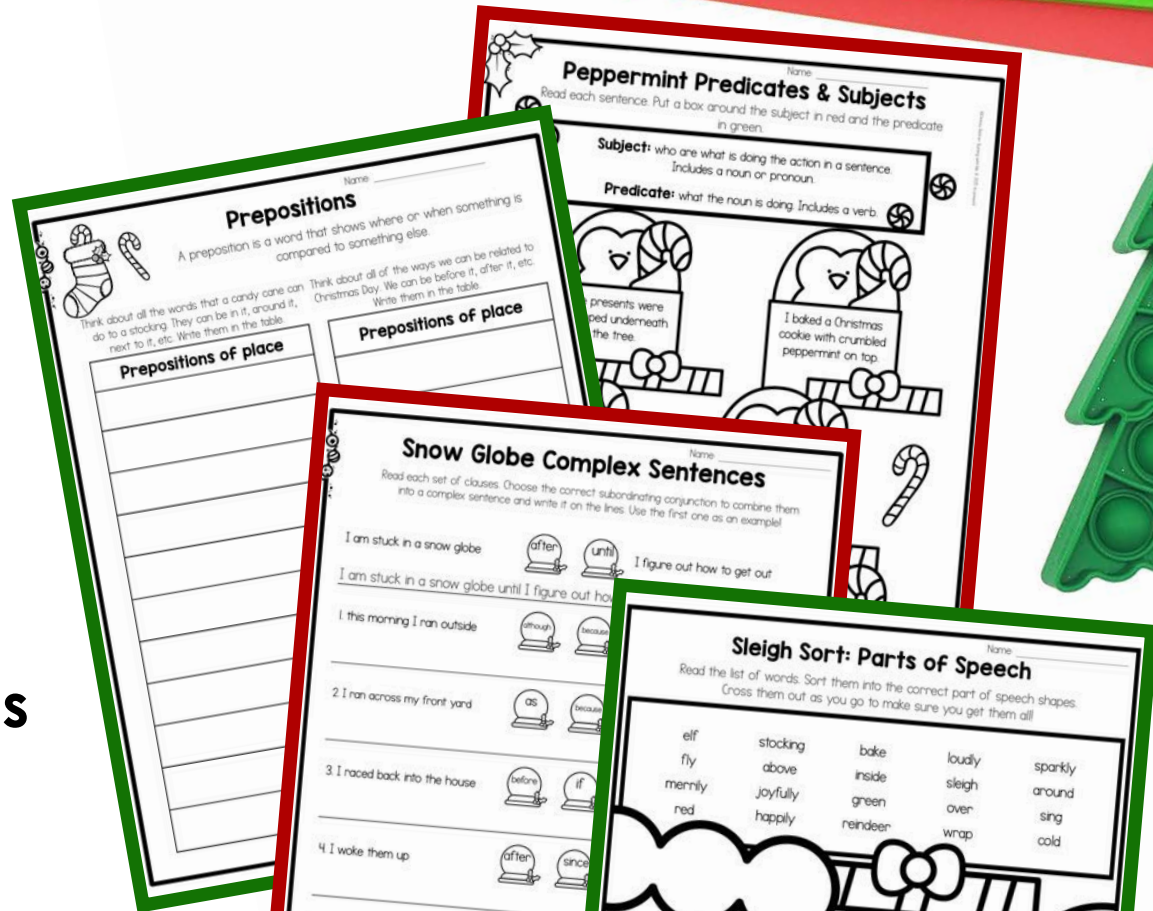

cookie

18 PAGES OF PARTS OF SPEECH & SENTENCE GRAMMAR SKILLS

PRACTICE GRAMMAR SKILLS

- ✓ Parts of speech
- ✓ Subject-predicate (verb) agreement
- ✓ Simple sentences
- ✓ Compound sentences
- ✓ Complex sentences
- ✓ Sentence editing

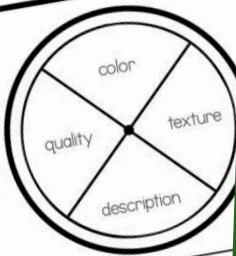

PLENTY OF CHRISTMAS THEMED PRACTICE!

18 PAGES OF NO-PREP PRACTICE

Adjectives

Read each noun. Use a pencil and a paperclip to spin the spinner. For each noun, read the directions on the spinner and write an adjective in the second column.

Noun	Adjective
hat
stocking
candy
reindeer
chocolate
cookie
snow
tree
wreath

Past Tense Penguins

Patty Penguin is trying to reach her cousin, Paul Penguin. Read the words on the snowballs. Color in the past-tense verbs to make a path for Patty to follow!

Santa Subjects & Predicates

Cut out the phrases. Decide whether they are subjects or predicates. Glue them into the correct column.

Subject	Predicate

Sweet Subject-Predicate Agreement

Cut out the predicates. Glue them next to the matching subject with correct subject-verb agreement.

Subject	Predicate
1. A giant Christmas present
2. Frosty the snowman
3. The beautiful tree
4. A handmade ornament

Cocoa Coordinating Conjunctions

Read each set of sentences. Decide with coordinating conjunction would best be used to combine them into compound sentences and write it in the middle, using a comma.

Coordinating Conjunctions
for	and	so	yet
nor	but	or

- I hope I get a gift from Santa. I wasn't very good this year.
- I wrapped the present for my teacher carefully. I wanted it to be so beautiful.
- I made a batch of gingerbread cookies. I decorated them.

Santa's sleigh
roared over the quiet town at night
a hungry Santa
the naughty reindeer