Spring Showers

Cast
Tammy
Jack

Setting: In Tammy and Jack's house. They're looking out the window at the pouring rain.

Tammy: Jack! This is so boring. There's nothing to do today.
Jack: I know. It's been raining for three days and I'm sick of being stuck inside.
Tammy: I read all of my books.
Jack: I watched all of my shows.
Tammy: I played all of my video games.
Jack: I ate all of my snacks.
Tammy: I guess we could do our homework.
Jack: [gives Tammy a look] Really? Homework? That's your plan?
Tammy: Well, I don't know what else to do!
Jack: Let me think...
Tammy: I guess we could...
Jack: Play together?
Tammy: Yeah, I guess so.
Jack: Okay, well, what will we play?
Tammy: I have a new glove! We can play catch!
Jack: Inside? Remember the last time we played catch inside?
Tammy: Oh. Right. Mom wasn't too happy we broke that window.
Jack: Yeah. So catch is out.
Tammy [sadly] Catch is out.
Jack: What about baking something?
Tammy: Jack, mom isn't home. She'd be really upset if we turned on the oven.The last time we tried to cook without mom, we burned our pancakes.
Jack: Ok. So baking is out.
Tammy: Yes. Baking is way out.
Jack: Well, I'm all out of ideas, Tammy. What can we do?
Tammy: I guess we could...use our imaginations?
Jack: [annoyed] Now you sound like my teacher.

Cast
Flipper
Swimmy

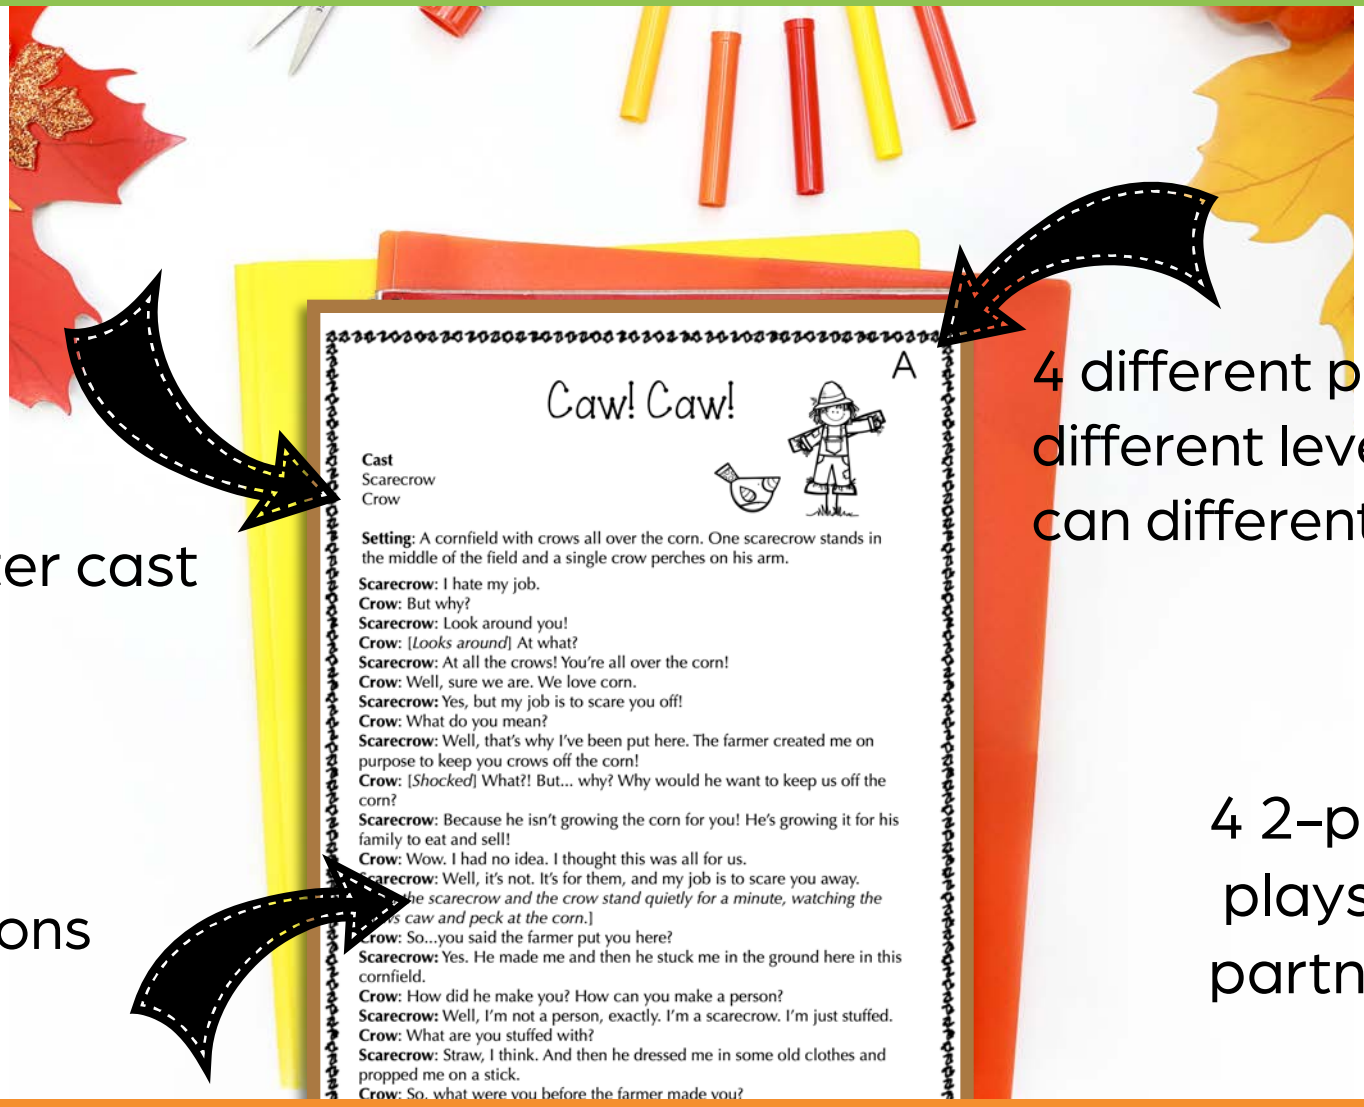

Setting: An iceberg in Antarctica. The penguins are huddled together staying warm.
Flipper: Brrr! It's cold out here, Swimmy!
Swimmy: I still don't think it's as cold as it was last year. The Big Freeze was terrible!
Flipper: I don't remember that. What happened?
Swimmy: Oh, that's right! You were away on vacation, visiting relatives in Madagascar!
Flipper: Yup. From December through February. It was great! I could really get used to living in the jungle!
Swimmy: Well, here it was awful. Everything froze! Even the ice cubes were frozen!
Flipper: Ummm...Swimmy, ice cubes are always frozen.
Swimmy: Well, you know what I mean! It was so cold I slid around on the ice all day!
Flipper: Swimmy! You always slide around on the ice all day!
Swimmy: Flipper! It was really, really cold. Frigid, even. And my poor little toes were frozen. [Swimmy and Flipper look down at Swimmy's feet.]
Flipper: Ummm...
Swimmy: I know, I know! I don't have any toes!
Flipper: [laughing] So, Swimmy, what are we going to do for Grandma's birthday this year?
Swimmy: Oh my gosh, Flipper, I haven't even thought about it yet!
Flipper:I know. [Holding up a calendar] It's coming up in two weeks!
Swimmy: Yipes! We really need to get thinking. Grandma's birthday. Grandma's birthday. [tapping his head] Grandma's birthday.
Flipper: Well... what if we made her some cookies?
Swimmy: What kind of cookies?
Flipper:Umm... maybe chocolate chip?
Swimmy: Well, that's an idea! But wait - when we turn on the oven...
Flipper: The iceberg will melt! Oh, no, we'd better not make cookies.
Swimmy: Hmmm... then what if we bought her a nice mug for hot chocolate?
Flipper: Swimmy! Do you know how many hot chocolate mugs Grandma has?
Swimmy: That's true. I guess she probably has about a hundred.
